Committee on Assemblies Announce Entertainment Program for Summer.

South America Figures

Five Popular Lectures in Science Will Be Given; Shakespeare Readings to Continue.

The Committee on Assemblies and Entertainment have attempted to build for the summer term, 1942, a program of informative, inspirational, and entertaining material which will complement the regular work of the class room, and at the same time will provide a means of relaxation and refreshment without taxing in any way the effort of the summer school.

Two major entertainments have been provided. On Wednesday, June 24, at 8:30 o'clock the Welcher Powers, Reuter Trio will present a concert of unusual interest. The three members of the trio are all first chair men of the Chicago Symphony Orchestra and their concert tour has evoked enthusiasm everywhere.

Monday, July 27, the second major entertainment of the summer will be a lecture-recital by John Charles Gilbert, former professor of English Literature at Northwestern University. Mr. Gilbert sang the coveted role of Franz Schubert in "Blossom Time" as well as the leads in "The Student Prince", "Maytime", and "The Chocolate Soldier". His lecture-recital will be on "The Mirth and Melody of Gilbert and Sullivan."

The summer program will include a continuation of the Shakespeare readings which have evoked such interest in the past two seasons. The choice of plays in 1942 includes: "The Taming of the Shrew", "Henry IV, Part I", "Love's Labors Lost", "Hamlet", and "The Merchant of Venice".

Five popular lectures in the field of modern scientific interest will be presented: "Petroleum and National Defense", "The Physical Basis of Music", "The Integration of Physics", and two lectures in the field of aeronautical navigation: "From Here to There and Back" and "An Ancient Science in Modern Dress".

Interest in our southern neighbors accounts for the present choice of four lectures, illustrated by moving pictures on Central and South America: "From Piracy to Hemisphere Defense", "The Colossal Andes and Their Coast Lands", "Our Difficult Neighbor Six Thousand Miles Away: Argentina", and "Brazil, A Land of Contradictions".

Four music recitals by members of the faculty of the Conservatory of Music, a dance recital by members of the faculty of the department of Physical Education, and two music films complete the schedule of afternoon programs which has been arranged.

Among the programs for the weekly assemblies will be included an address by President Lamkin, a dramatic presentation by the Coffer-Miller Players, and an address by Dr. Aline Chalouf, distinguished member of the Paris bar, who has been associated in the work of the World Court with Manley Hudson, and with the discussion group on International Relations headed by the well-known Spanish analyst and critic, Madariaga.

Frank Baker Will Join Army Air Corps in June

Frank H. Baker, a graduate of the College in 1941, will leave June 16 for the United States Army Air Corps, as an Aviation Cadet. He has been on furlough since April 16.

Mr. Baker received his Bachelor of Science Degree in music and mathematics and has been employed as music supervisor for the past year in the high school at Parnell. He was a member of the C. P. T. class of 1940 and of the Northwest Missourian staff. He was prominent in music activities including the 128th Field Artillery Band of the Missouri National Guard, and has held positions as organist in two of the local churches.

To Work for Master's Degree Mrs. Mildred Eckert Wallace has been re-elected as Latin and English instructor in the high school at Albany for the coming year. She receives an increase in salary. After the first of June, Mrs. Wallace will go to Columbia to complete her work for her Master's degree from the University of Missouri. Mrs. Wallace is a graduate of the College.

The University of Alabama has started a course in communications technology.

Mr. Sayler Asks Those Who Desire CPT to See Him

Full Details of Summer's CPT Program Cannot Be Announced as Yet.

Though full details of the summer program for Civilian Pilot Training here at the College has not yet been announced, it is believed that eligibility requirements will be about the same as for the Air Corps and that the summer CPT program will be closely tied in with the Army and Navy Air Corps.

From a letter sent out from the Civil Aeronautics Administration under date of May 9, it appears that all trainees for CPT will be required to enlist in the Reserve of one of the Armed Air Forces, that is, in the Navy V-5, or the Army Air Corps Reserve.

Under present plans, each institution giving the CPT course—will be required to furnish its own trainees, that is, be responsible for the recruiting. To that end, Mr. J. Norvel Sayler of the mathematics department is asking that all men students who wish to be considered applicants for summer Civilian Pilot Training courses, either primary or secondary, see him and give him their names immediately.

Both full-time and extra-curricular trainees will receive their ground school instruction through the College. For next year it is expected that about 35 per cent of the elementary and 24 per cent of the secondary quota for this College will be extra-curricular, that is, three classes a year, be conducted along the same lines as the Civilian Pilot Training Programs in the past.

Present indications are that full-time trainees will be expected, upon completion of the CPT courses to go direct to the air forces; some perhaps upon completion of the Elementary; some upon completion of the Secondary; others upon completion of the Cross-Country; and still others upon completion of the Instructor Course.

Miss DeLuce Will Exhibit Paintings

Pictures Will Be on Display Beginning Sunday at Recreation Hall.

Miss Olive S. DeLuce, chairman of the Art department of the College, will exhibit some of her original paintings next week beginning Sunday, May 24. The paintings will be on display in Recreation Hall at 10:00 o'clock preceding Baccalaureate Services and again from 12:00 until 1:00 o'clock, and throughout the week of May 31.

This exhibit includes twenty-five paintings which have never been shown before. They are divided into three groups.

The first group is of the Rocky Mountains done in Estes Park, including studies of Long's Peak and Fall River Range. The second group was done in the Missouri Ozarks, and the third along the coast of Maine.

Miss DeLuce is particularly interested in painting water. She has some very interesting contrasts in studies of the surf off the coast of Maine and in her treatment of the Lake of the Ozarks in the changing seasons.

Included also in the exhibit are two quick studies of old houses.

One is of a classical Greek tradition done in Peterboro, New York, and the other is a colonial house two hundred years old located in Durham, New Hampshire.

Assign Counselors

Remember when you were a freshman—those homesick nights, those lonesome hours, and that horrible lost feeling? Those days are gone forever for freshmen at Residence Hall with the enlargement of the student counseling program. The counseling program was started in a small way this year with eight upperclassmen who were selected to help freshmen solve some of those perplexing problems all the way from what to do when the buzzer sounds to how to find time for both social life and studies.

Not much publicity was given to the work of the student counselors for they were modest souls, but next year they are planning an ambitious program. In addition to Annette Crowe, Betty Drennan, Elaine Gorsuch, Frances Smith, and Alene White, who are returning next fall for their second year as senior counselors, Marjorie Coates, Barbara Gifford, and Betty Gay will replace senior counselors Betty Bower, June Kunkel and Martha Miner. In addition each senior counselor will have a junior counselor to assist her. Each year re-

Betty Bower, Associate Editor, Chosen Editor

Betty Bower of Cowgill has been named editor of the Northwest Missourian for next year. She was chosen by the Student Senate and approved by the administration of the College.

Miss Bower began work on the staff of the College paper upon her entering college two years ago and has continued to serve on it up to the present time. During the first year she worked especially with the mailing lists, typing, and general reporting. Early this year she was named associate editor, working especially with the social page. When Ted Woodward went into service in the United States Army, Miss Bower, in addition to her duties as associate editor, took over the department of sports, which Mr. Woodward had been handling.

The new editor, therefore, has had experience with almost every phase of putting out the College newspaper. The early selection of a qualified editor makes the outlook for the Northwest Missourian bright for next fall, when it will again resume publication. The Student Senate is to be congratulated upon its choice of editor for the coming year.

1942 "Tower" Is Distinctive Book

Art Students on Campus Are Responsible for Division Pages.

Clothed in a green and white cover and proudly bearing the theme of the "Bearcat," the long-heralded "1942 Tower" was distributed Monday to an eager student body. This year's "Tower" follows a modernistic design and features group pictures of campus life and activities rather than individuals.

For the first time in the several years the art work in the "Tower" has been done by students of the college instead of by outside artists. The frontispiece, which features the Bearcat entering the "1942 Tower," was done by Lloyd Hutchinson.

The next art work is the two-page title pages which were done by Helen Boyersmith. Following this double page art work comes the Dedication to the President of the College, Uel W. Lamkin. An original poem, "Leadership," by Robert Flowers makes the dedication.

The Bearcat paws which mark the Dedication page and are found throughout the book were drawn by Frances Carmean. The next division page is a Bearcat looking through a telescope at an airplane view of the campus. This page which is entitled "The Bearcat Takes a Quick Look at Us!" was drawn by Lloyd Hutchinson. This section of the book is a study of activities on the campus and is accompanied by a very amusing feature written by Peggy Cunningham.

The Division Page introducing the faculty is "But First He Came Here to Learn!" and was drawn by Lois Tripp. The students are introduced by "He Gets Acquainted!" which was drawn by Helen Boyersmith.

The athletic section is introduced by "He's a Brawny Bearcat," and shows a bearcat lifting a huge weight. This division page was drawn by Lloyd Hutchinson.

The organizations are introduced by a bearcat standing before a speaker's stand and bearing the title "And a Joiner Too." This page was drawn by Mary Frances Young.

The last section of the book, which is devoted to the Tower Queen, Betty Drennan, and to the features of the year, shows a Bearcat going to a dance with the caption (Continued on page 4) placements on the ranks of senior counselors will be made from this group.

The junior counselors selected for next year are Mona Alexander, Elizabeth Davis, Marie Gilliland, Barbara Kowitz, Patricia McDermott, Eleanor Peck, and Mary Frances Young.

Mailmen will be kept busy this summer for counselors plan to write the new Freshmen as soon as they receive rooms at Residence Hall. A peek into these letters would probably reveal some interesting tips plus a sketch of the student's room, suggestions for a planned wardrobe, and list of desirable articles including everything from alarm clocks to pictures.

The Monday before school starts next fall will see these counselors back on campus ready to welcome the freshmen. And you may be sure there will be no time for homesickness with the numerous activities which are being planned to keep the freshmen busy before classes start. But, stop, we will not tell you more or you will all want to be starting out as freshmen in Residence Hall.

THE COLLEGE OATH

"We will never bring disgrace to this our College, by any act of cowardice or dishonesty. We will fight for the ideals and sacred duties of the College. We will revere and obey the College laws and do our best to incite a like respect and reverence in others. We will transmit this College to those who come after us, greater, better, and more beautiful than it was transmitted to us."

EDITOR BIDS FAREWELL

With this, the thirtieth issue to come under his supervision, your editor bids a rather reluctant farewell to college journalism. He has tried to maintain the ideals and standards of good newspaper work set by his predecessors. If he has succeeded it is because of the cooperation extended him by the students and faculty, and because of the expert and thoughtful guidance of the Missourian adviser.

AN APPRECIATION

The faculty adviser to the staff of the Northwest Missourian takes this means of expressing to the editor of the Northwest Missourian, Walter Johnson, and to the members of the staff the heartiest appreciation for the fine way in which they have responded to their duties.

The editor and the staff have worked hard. They have at all times realized the importance of their task of putting out a paper of which their college could be proud. Instead of the adviser having to say, "We cannot print that," she has heard time and again from the editor or some member of the staff, "Miss Dykes, that isn't the kind of stuff we ought to print, is it?" The advising, therefore, has been a delight and not an unpleasant task.

One person who has not been a regular member of the staff, in that he has not written for the paper, deserves special mention—Jack Langston, who has been a student assistant through NYA for the past two years. He has done fine work with the mailing lists and with the typing; but he has done many, many other things that have been required of him. He has worked hours and hours overtime, and not once has he complained. He and other members of the staff took on 72 hours of extra work a month when Ted Woodward's going to the army took away that number of hours of paid NYA help. And nobody complained.

As it any wonder that the adviser to the staff of the Northwest Missourian is proud of the people she has had to work with this year? Is it any wonder she should like to keep them all on the staff for another year?

Quotable Quotes

"Victory will be in two fields, combat and recovery. The impoverished nations of Europe have not the force to handle victory alone or recovery alone. America will lead the way in organization; in answering the tormenting question, how do we want to live; in the just care of our soldiers; in the fair distribution of the national income; in attempting to reduce unemployment; and in world co-operation. Only a trained people, trained in leadership, trained in analysis, trained in agreement, can win these great objects. To them our colleges can and will be dedicated, for they are among the highest objects to which the civilization that we cherish is dedicated, our colleges with all the rest." —From an address by Isaiah Bowman, president, John Hopkins University.

From the Dean

Commencement means the end of four years of college life for the Seniors and the beginning of an opportunity to justify the four years' effort through service.

Congratulations, Class of 1942, and best wishes for the future.

VICTORY BEGINS AT HOME

"Victory begins at home," says a leaflet sent out from the Bureau of Home Economics of the U. S. Department of Agriculture and the Consumer division of the Office of Price Administration. Then follows a discussion of "Sugar in Wartime."

This leaflet answers so many of the questions that are being asked about sugar rationing that it has been deemed wise to quote at length from it. Printed in varying kinds of type, it is readable; and its argument is telling. Quotations follow:

Sugar Has Become a Weapon of War. It's like this:

Sugarcane is needed to make molasses. Molasses is used in making industrial alcohol. Industrial alcohol is needed to make explosives. EXPLOSIVES ARE NEEDED TO BLAST THE AXIS.

Why Do We Have to Ration Sugar?

Sugar supplies from the Philippines are cut off. Hawaiian supplies are uncertain because of the war in the Pacific. Less sugar is coming from other countries because ships are needed to carry more strategic war materials. Sugar is being shipped to our Allies under the lend-lease plan. . . . SUGAR IS NEEDED TO MAKE EXPLOSIVES.

How Much Sugar Will You Get?

Each member of your family can get a fixed amount of sugar each ration period. This amount may have to vary from week to week or month to month but it will be from one half to one pound per person per week. . . .

How Much Sugar Do You Need?

NONE! Sugar is prized mostly for its sweet flavor. Food experts say you really don't need any sugar at all. What you do need is the food energy that sugar gives you. And you can get that food energy from cereals, breads, potatoes, oats, and from many other familiar foods. . . .

But you aren't being asked to get along without sugar. Remember, each member of your family will be entitled to the same ration. Their combined ration will become your family sugar pool. And for most families this will provide about as much as they generally use. . . .

But if you're in the habit of using more sugar than you're going to get, here are a few tips on:

Sugar Saving Through the Day

Use things other than sugar for sweetening. Cook cereals with dried fruit to sweeten them. Use sirups and honey instead of sugar in baking.

Don't sugar sweet foods. Many fruits are sweet enough in themselves. Cakes need no frosting. Milk has its own sugar.

Use vegetables rich in sugar: Corn, carrots, sweet potatoes.

Dissolve all the sugar you put in your coffee and tea—more stirring—less sugar. . . . Don't waste your sweets—don't spill sugar. Don't help yourself to more than you're going to use.

Your Sugar Ration Is All You Will Want

If you PLAN MEALS WISELY, If you COOK CAREFULLY, If you DON'T WASTE ANY.

But if you have a sweet tooth and insist you want more sugar than you're going to get, remember—We're in War!

Louisiana State Plans Economy Tour of Mexico

BATON ROUGE, LA.—(ACP)—Reservations are mounting for Louisiana State university's second "economy tour" to Mexico under sponsorship of the division of Latin-American relations.

June 2-11 is the time set for the tour, which is designated for limited budgets and organized by the division of Latin-American relations in co-operation with the National Railways of Mexico.

Meals en route are the one necessary item not included in the price of $68.00, it is explained. Passengers will have no change of trains between Baton Rouge and Mexico City. Hotel accommodations for the five nights in Mexico City, at the Imperial hotel, and meals during the stay in Mexico City are included.

There will be four full days of sight-seeing in and around Mexico City with English-speaking guides and plenty of time for shopping and "exploring." Side trips will be made to the famed shrine of Guadalupe, the Toltec pyramids, the floating gardens of Xochimilco, Chapultepec park, and to Guernavaca, famed week-end resort of Mexican society.

Dr. Howard L. Bevis, president of Ohio State university, will address the graduating class of Kent State university at commencement June 8.

The Stroller

This column is practically at the last long mile as far as this school year goes. All the banquets, picnics, recitals, formal dances, et cetera are now only memories. However the activities for the seniors have only just begun.

Oh yes, the underclassmen will still have a few activities left next week in the way of term papers and examinations. What's a little thing like that? Anyway a number of the underclassmen are wishing they could be Seniors at spring quarter examination time.

Well, the Stroller knows a great big secret. The Towers are out! Of course you didn't have the slightest idea since classes have been practically discarded in favor of that great book. All the boys are thriving over what the fair maidens have written in their books, while all the girls are simply raving about what those wonderful boy-friends have inscribed in their Towers. That must account for all these beaming faces around the campus with maybe a sour one stuck in here and there.

Romance is really in the air particularly among the faculty. Miss Helen Kramer has announced her engagement to Mr. "Commerce Department" Cook as this column persists in calling him. Congratulations are in order and so are cigars, Mr. Cook.

The Stroller is rather curious to know how his fellow classmates are intending to spend the summer. Personally the Stroller is going to spend his between a swimming pool and a typewriter. Quite a combination, but variety is the spice of life.

The Stroller received a letter from a girl friend in Minnesota this week who mentioned seeing Emerald McKay when he was up to Minneapolis recently. She commented that "Mac" still had those great big beautiful eyes, and asked if he wasn't the beau brummel of the campus. The details were very interesting. The Stroller will be glad to show the letter to any of "Mac's" friends.

The danceette Wednesday afternoon and the Victory Dance at the armory that night really got the students back into the dancing groove. Ladies were admitted free at the armory while the gents had to pay fifty cents, so was the Stroller ever glad he is a lady. (No remarks are necessary, either.)

Paul Toland has finally met his "Waterloo" in the person of Elaine Gorsuch. The Stroller wonders just what Elaine has that all the other girls haven't had for two whole years. Or at least almost two years.

More of our students than usual seem to be planning to return to school this summer. Perhaps Maryville will not have the usual August lull this year if all the summer school students stay for intercession.

Our campus will see several new faces next fall. Dr. Kleinpell is leaving, Miss Kramer will join the matrimonial ranks, Mr. Main is leaving, and several other vacancies are expected. We've really enjoyed their presence on our campus, but we wish them the best of luck in their new ventures.

U. S. Marine Corps Addresses Alumni

Age Limit Is Raised From Twenty-seven to Thirty Years.

From Robert L. Denig, Brigadier General, U. S. Marine Corps, Director, Division of Public Relations, came a letter filled with news for the alumni of this College. It has to do with enlistment in the Marine Corps Reserve, and is addressed to the editor.

But let the Brigadier General speak for himself:

"You can't fly the blueprint of a bomber. I don't need to tell you that."

"Right now a Marine officer 'on paper' isn't worth a plugged nickel in our war effort. Not what's needed—and badly—are more and more living breathing, fighting Marines and men to lead them."

"We need your help. A story 'on paper' is worth much."

"And this is news! News of particular interest for college men. Never before in the history of the Candidates' Class for Commission in the Marine Corps Reserve has the age limit been above 27 years of age. Now men up to 30 years of age are being accepted!"

"Here's a chance for students, grads and alumni of your college, previously excluded because of their age, to get there first" with the United States Marines as officers.

"As you probably know, qualified students and graduates are enlisted in the Marine Corps Reserve and are sent as members of the Candidates' Class through a ten-week training period before being commissioned as second lieutenants."

"Details and complete information is available at local Marine recruiting offices or from college authorities."

"Will you tell these men of this opportunity to become officers in the first branch of the service, distinguished by 167 years of heroic tradition?"

"Tell them it's no 'snap course' to a soft job, because it's not. It's hard and tough and grueling all the way—that's what fashions the sturdy stuff Marines are made of."

into the army service before completing his college education and is now stationed at Camp Blanding, Fla.

Sports Events for Current Year Close With End of Track Season

Coach Stalcup Submits Ten Names for Approval of Athletic Board.

Schottel and Barton Leave

Ten Men Will Receive Letters If Their Names Are Approved by Athletic Commission.

Another track season has come to an end, and it is all over but awarding the letters. The Bearcats dropped to third place in the conference this year but made a good showing in all their other meets.

Coach Stalcup has submitted the names of ten men to the Athletic Board for approval. These men will receive the honorary "M" if they have met all scholastic requirements, and if the Board approves of the selection.

The ten men who have been recommended for letters are Elmer Eason, St. Joseph; Ivan Schottel, King City; David Murphy, Cairo, Illinois; Marshall Russell, Amity; Harry Davis, DeKalb; Gordon Overstreet, Kansas City; Ralph Tritsch, Sidney, Iowa; Charles Fletcher, Holton, Kansas; John Seyforth, Edina; and Chester Parks, Bethany.

Barton and Schottel, both high scorers for the Bearcats, are the only senior members of the squad. Barton ran the 100 and 220 yard dashes and was a member of the relay teams. Schottel was prominent in weights, winning the conference in discus, and placing second in the shot put.

Tests by the University of Michigan engineering research department have shown that poor spark plugs may often waste as much as one gallon of gasoline in ten.

To conserve fuel, Wellesley college will have a six weeks vacation next winter, President Mildred H. McAfee has announced.

Wellesley is said to be the first women's college to have its own radio station.

Two Former College Men Will Become Bombardiers

ELLINGTON FIELD, TEXAS (SPECIAL) — Flying bombs at the Axis will soon be the job of 17 Missouri Aviation Cadets studying to become navigators and bombardiers at Ellington Field, world's largest multi-motor flying school.

Of this group, Northwest Missouri State Teachers College sent Kenneth G. Allen, 24, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Allen, Route 4, Richmond, and Thomas W. Boyd, 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. David E. Boyd of Forest City.

These future bombardiers are receiving seven weeks of intensive training on the greatest network of concrete ramps and runways. Here, at Ellington, they are taking detailed studies and processing that will fit them for air crew work. As members of the air crew, one of the finest of precision teams, they will assist and direct the pilot of a victory bomber.

Stephen LaMar to Take YMCA Job in St. Joseph

Stephen G. La Mar, formerly of Elmo, an instructor at Roosevelt Junior high school at St. Joseph, will become boys' work secretary of the St. Joseph Y. M. C. A., effective June 1. He will succeed Ray Baird, who recently resigned to accept a similar position at the Beaumont Tex. "Y."

"Both the board and staff feel happy over securing the services of Mr. La Mar," A. A. Campbell, general secretary of the "Y," said in announcing the appointment last night. His outstanding educational background should make him an exceptional leader of young men and boys."

Mr. La Mar will assist Mr. Campbell in the management of Camp Marvin Hilliard this summer and will assume full direction of the entire boys' department, including Hi-Y work, as soon as he familiarizes himself with the duties.

A graduate of the Northwest Missouri State Teachers' College at Maryville, Mr. La Mar took his master's degree from the University of Missouri and has worked on his doctor's at both M. U. and the Columbia University teachers' college in New York. He is a member of Phi Delta Kappa, national educational fraternity.—News-Press.

Random Shots . . .

And so, we come to the end of another school year, and the close of the Bearcat athletic events until next fall. In this the last Random Shots column for this year we're going to review the sports highlights of the past season.

We have every reason to be proud of our Bearcat teams this year. The football, basketball, and track squads were all hit hard (and we mean hard) by graduation and the war, but Coaches Milner and Stalcup went to work with that will win and produced a champion football team, a basketball team that ranked second in the conference, and a track squad that won all its dual meets, one six-team meet, and placed third in M. I. A. A. competition.

Captain Ivan Schottel of the football squad, playing his fourth year of varsity football, proved his ability to handle a gridiron outfit as he led the Bearcats to a 21-0 victory over the hard fighting Warrensburg Mules to win the M. I. A. A. title.

The title belonged to the Bearcats alone for 24 hours and then the Rolla Miners defeated the Kirksville Bulldogs and Rolla and Maryville shared the conference crown at the end of the season.

Captained by Eddie Johnson the Bearcat basketball squad won 14 and lost 6. At the beginning of the season Coach Stalcup was faced with a problem, namely the absence of all but one of last year's regulars—Eddie Johnson.

However he was able to build a strong team from last year's second string men and several outstanding freshmen. They won the Sunflower tournament, and by the end of the season Maryville was second only to the powerful Warrensburg Mules in the M. I. A. A. conference.

The track squad slipped a little from last year in conference competition due to bad luck on the day of the state meet, but won all other meets they entered. Again Ivan Schottel was an outstanding member of the squad and he and Gordon Overstreet led the team in scoring. Schottel and Barton are the only senior lettermen.

Intra-mural basketball directed by Mr. Davis and the Intra-mural commission was a big success and the College was well represented in the St. Joseph "Y" tourney by the Hashshingers and the Aces.

And this ends what we'd call another successful year for our two great coaches, Wilbur Stalcup and Ryland Milner. Both former students of the College and former Bearcat stars, they have made Bearcat football and basketball teams of championship caliber more than once during their years of coaching here. And as everyone writes in everyone else's Tower—the best of luck to them next season."

Gets Captain's Bars

Paul Person of Maryville recently was promoted from a first lieutenant to the rank of a captain in the Army Air Corps. He now is in foreign service. Captain Person, a graduate of Kelly Field, is the son of Dr. R. C. Person.

FORT WORTH, TEXAS—(ACP)

Music is the leading extra-curricular activity on the campus of Texas Christian university.

Though, because of numerous conference championships and bowl games, many persons might have guessed football as the main student interest, a survey discloses more than twice as many students participate in musical activities as in all intercollegiate athletic endeavors.
